ABOUT ANAMOSA

Serving around 1,000 students in a vibrant community of 5,900, the Anamosa Community School District lies at the center of this charming Jones County town. Anamosa combines the peace of small-town life with exceptional amenities, including a variety of dining, a local aquatic center, a community center, two golf courses, and scenic Wapsipinicon State Park. Anamosa also hosts the iconic annual Pumpkinfest, is located an easy drive from nearby metro areas and minutes from the famous Great Jones County Fair – making it a wonderful place to live, learn, and grow.

"My children are in every level in the Anamosa schools, and I have been very appreciative of their teachers. My kids have very different needs, and their teachers go above and beyond to meet them where they are."
